"We as the people" welcome you

For those who are new, we give you a warm welcome from like-minded living men and women.

Actions and Connections

Push for a Peoples Bank Scores Win

For those of you following the push for a publicly owned people's bank here in Australia, you will be aware of the recommendations by the Senate committee's inquiry into regional bank branch closures. If not, then I would recommend that your read through their recommendations. These recommendations are certainly "on the money" and give us hope that a people's bank is now quite possible.

I will summarise the top three of the eight recommendations, but before I do, I have to bring your attention to an issue with Australia Post that could undermine the viability of using the post office outlets as full public bank branches. The Australia Post CEO has indicated that he is closing 271 post office outlets to get the number of branches down to the legislative minimum of 4,000. And he also indicated that they are lobbying the government to end the regulatory obligation to maintain 4,000 postal outlets.

Hugh's Health Support

Ascorbic Acid – frontline medicine

With the "cold and flu" season approaching it's a good time to review the benefits and use of Vitamin C or "Ascorbic Acid".

Can Vitamin C "cure the common cold" as Linus Pauling declared in 1970? What is a "cure"? What is the common cold?

Korrinne's Gardening Tips

Aloe Vera

This is a versatile succulent with approximately 500 different species around the world. It has topical and medicinal properties and easy to grow in any climate, likes morning sun and bright, indirect light if grown indoors. If you see orange on the leaves, your plant is getting too much sun. It needs well drained soil and a cactus mix is ideal with low to medium watering and likes to be a little pot bound in containers. They don't need a lot of fertiliser (Spring and late Summer) and propagation is by removing pups.

Local Food Sources

A beautiful store out at Pie Creek supported by Julie-Ann and local farmers

You will find this stall EVERY Saturday.
Such a great way to support local farmers.

More info on our website here

We are very keen to add more local farmers and producers to our food source list.

If you have contact with a farmer, please email us at news@myplacegympie.org

Thank you
