"We as the people" welcome you

For those who are new, we give you a warm welcome from like-minded living men and women.

Korrinne's Gardening Tips

Hi to all the gardeners

Spring is nearly here so the blooms are starting to sprout along with all that wonderful, healthy produce to fill our plates and to share with friends

On reflection with the amount of people my gardening articles reach through our newsletter compared to when we had the gardening sub group on our fake book page (before fb shut all our subgroups down without notice), I have decided to return to putting it on the fb page temporarily to reach a larger audience prior to the website increasing numbers.

That being said, I do urge EVERYONE to please join our new web page where we have many sub groups in a much more secure and private space. We need to take this step before fake book shuts our whole fb page down like they have done to so many other groups whom they do not agree with.

For those who do not have a fb account and read the articles, please feel free to speak to me at our meetings, the MyPlace marquee at Duck Pond markets or register with the website as I will put them on the gardening subgroup there.

Happy Gardening everyone

Local Food Sources

A beautiful store out at Pie Creek supported by Julie-Ann and local farmers

You will find this stall EVERY Saturday.
Such a great way to support local farmers.

More info on our website here

We are very keen to add more local farmers and producers to our food source list.

If you have contact with a farmer, please email us at news@myplacegympie.org

Thank you
